You Ain't Heard Nothin' Yet"
Till You Hear Al Jolson

Al tells you all about his sweetheart - or almost all - in this latest Sinbad hit. The famous laugh of this exclusive Columbia artist is featured twice, and he keeps you laughing all the time. Coupled with Billy Murray's speedy, tuneful song, "Come On and Play With Me."

After the caucus, some of the Dem- Inspiration ocrats frankly stated that their ac- Miami tion was an assertion of their "independence" in the belief that they knew the sentiment of the country beter than either the president or the party leaders.

Though the debate was held close to the issue before the caucus, frequent reference to the president and Secretary Baker were injected into the discussion. Representative Kitchin declared "with all due deference" to these officials he believed there could be no objection to the house stating its position, especially since both officials had "put the party on record" by announcing their attitude.

Mr. Kitchin, in explanation of the president's stand, told his colleagues that Mr. Wilson's illness had "unfortunately" removed the executive Mohawk from an intimate touch with national Old Colony affairs and sentiment."

Representative Caldwell declared Michigan that every post of the American Le- North Butte gion by the action today at Indian- Nip apolis had gone on record in favor of New Cornelia universal training. He urged that political expediency favors a declaration for such training, rather than a stand against it. Representative Olney, Massachusetts, and Representative Fisher, Tennessee, both members of the house military committee, along with Mr. Caldwell, also urged no action at present but the other Democratic committeemen opposed them or remained silent.

Some opposition was against unversal training on the ground that too many youths would be called from farm and industrial pursuits, curtailing production, which was said to be the "greatest need of the country. Though record votes were taken in the Democratic caucus these were not made public. The 17, however. who voted against declaration of the stand of the house Democrats were understood to have been Representatives Bee, Texas; Caldwell, New York; Campbell, Pennsylvania; Cantrill, Kentucky; Carter, Oklahoma; Doremus, Michigan; Dupre, Louisiana; Eagan, New Jersey; Fisher, Tennessee; Igoe, Missouri: Lea, California; Lonergan, Connecticut; Minahan, New Jersey: Mooney, Olney, Massachusetts; Pell.
